POLARIS
INDIAN VALLEY NORTH

MIDVALE, OHIO
VOLUME XIII

1980

"This is what we call regression, Mr. Zontini."

"Now stay there!"

"Just you and me, Babe."

"Not here, Tadd."

"Rally around, everyone!"

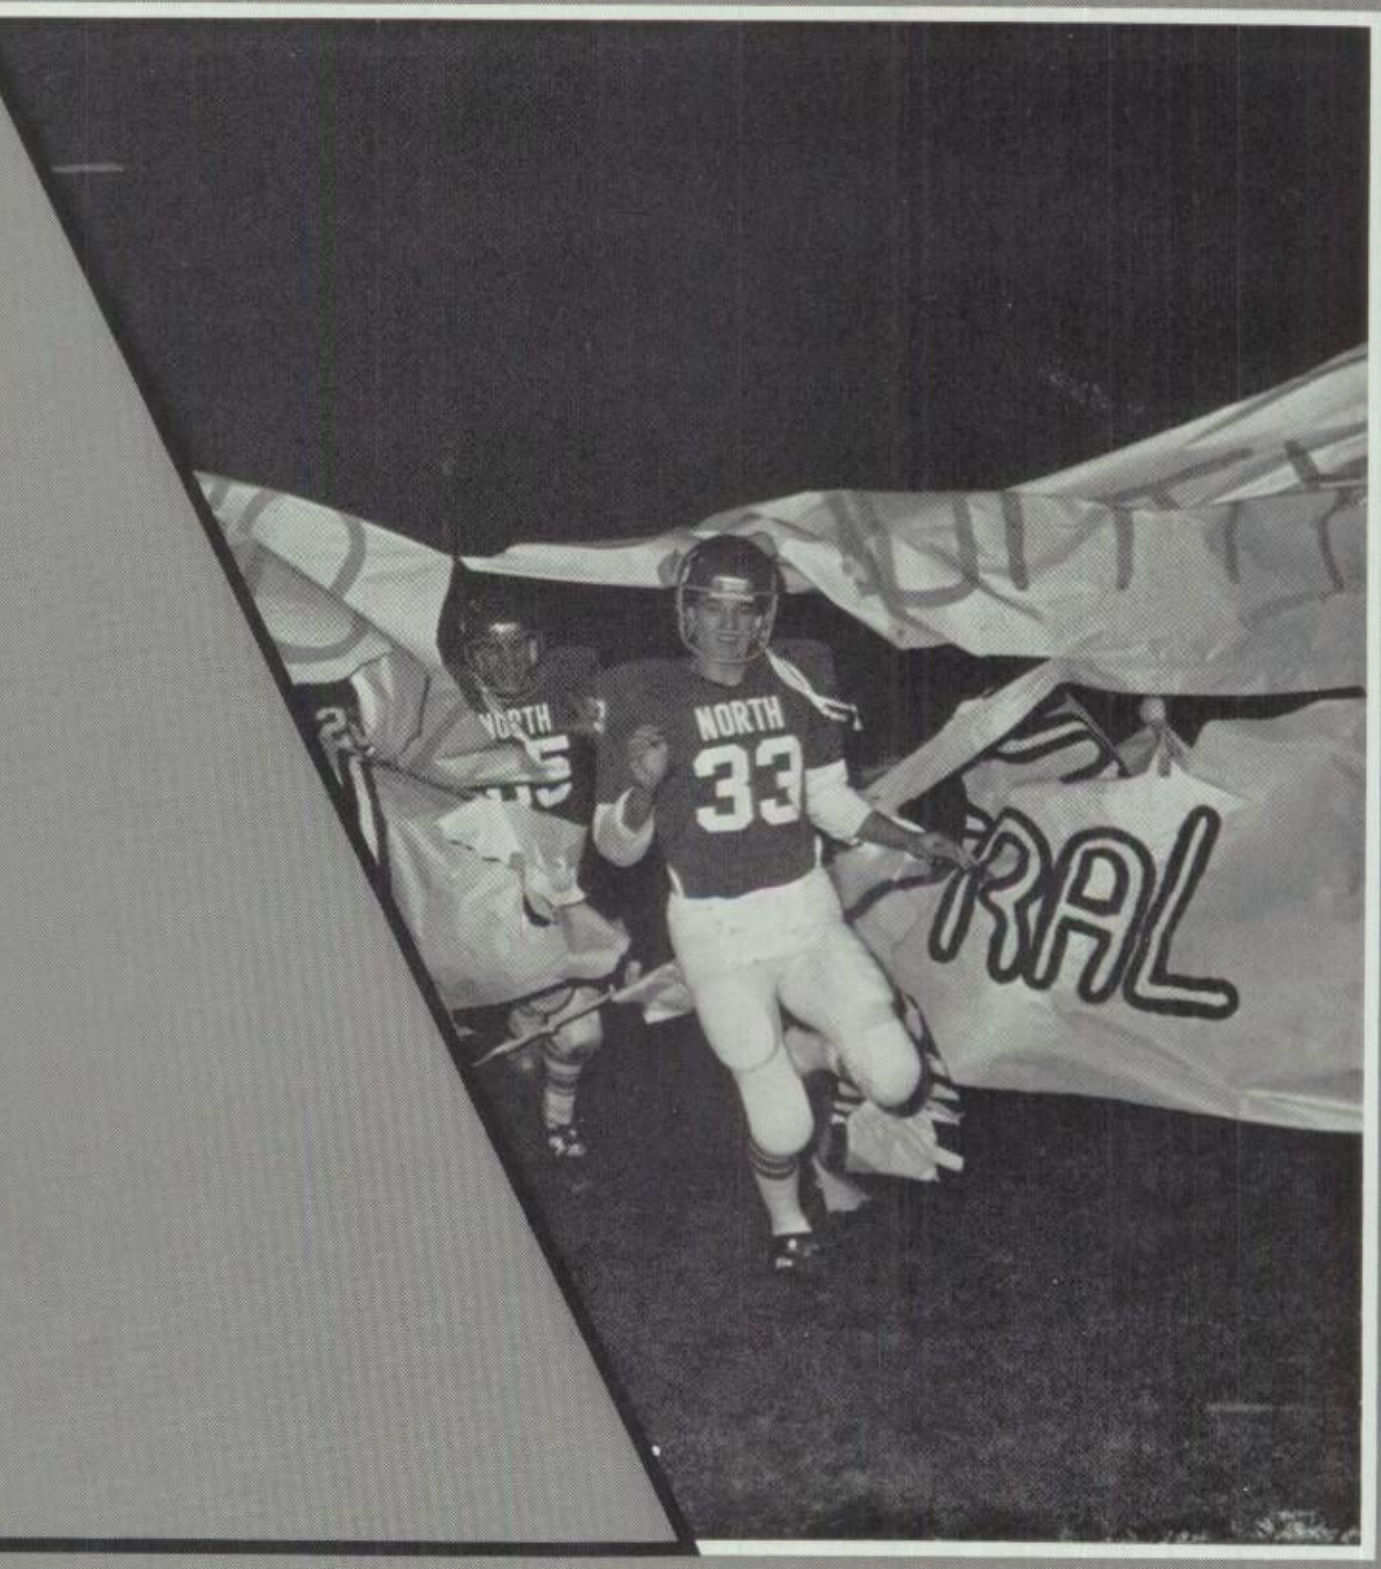
Your high school years are brief
And can be lived only once.
You'll often sit and wonder
"What's in store for me?
What am I going to do in life?
And who am I going to be?"
Someone's always there to help you
And tell you where to go.
He'll tell you where your talents lie,
And how to let them show.
The decision, you'll realize,
Is yours alone to make.
You have to find out where to go
And then what road to take.
Once a day is past
It can not be relived.
You'll wish for them to last.
But live them now
Before the names are forgotten
And the faces fade.
For this is the beginning of a
New Decade!

Kim Caldwell

"Look busy, girls, Mr. McConnell has found us!"

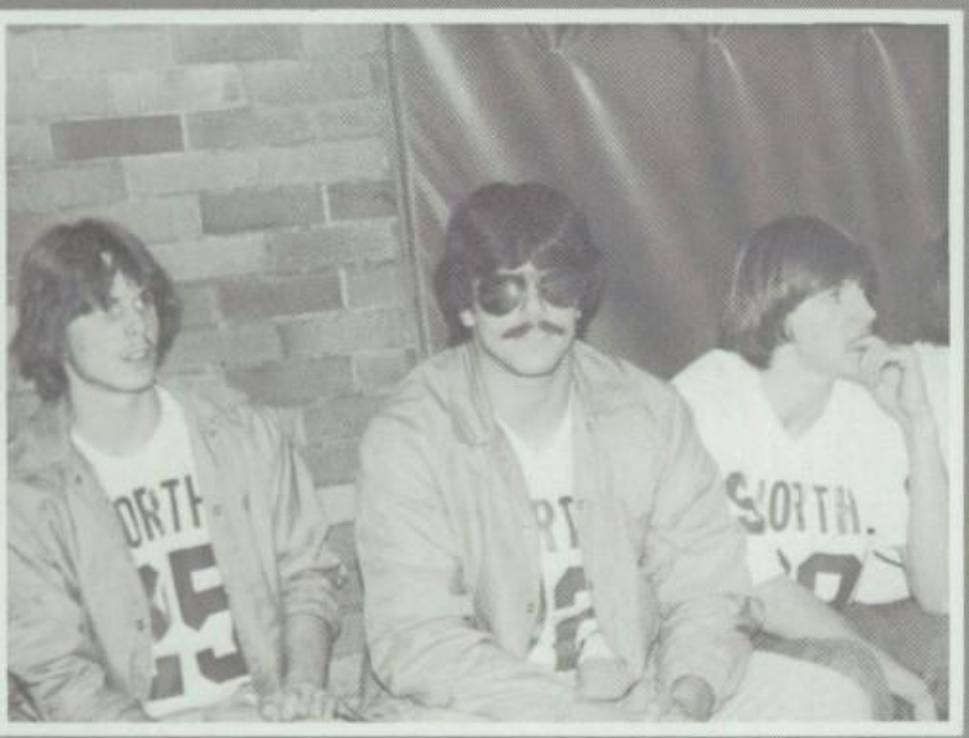
"Enthusiasm builds!"

FALL



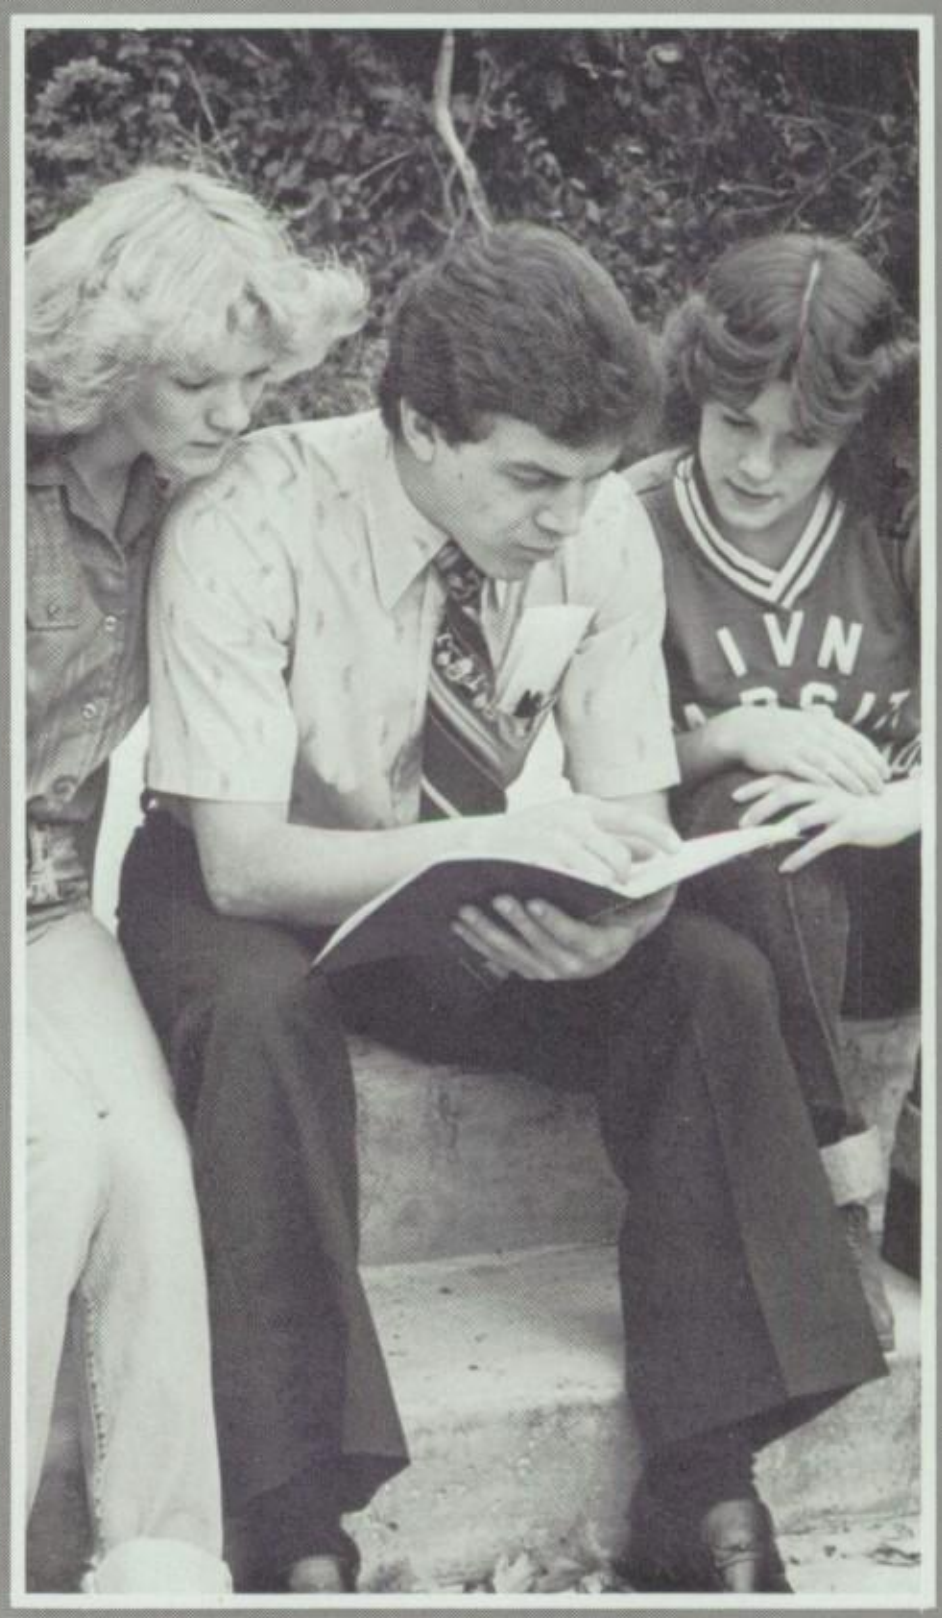
"J. J. leads the team."

"I dare you to take my picture."



"Lambert move over, the Truck's coming through."

"Kim Hobart wearing the latest in football helmets."



"Our grades can't be that low."

The homecoming court watched the exciting game from a float decorated by the Student Council.

The I.V.N. Marching Band provided music for the homecoming ceremonies which took place at half time.

Music for the after-game dance was provided by De Ja Vu. The theme, "It's Better Than It's Ever Been Before," was carried throughout the gym in decorations furnished by the Pep Club.

NORTH GRIDDERS FINISH STRONG

Despite losing seven games this season, our gridders showed determination and teamwork in defeating their final two opponents. Season statistics show that our team had one of the finest defenses in North's history, losing seven games by a total of only thirty points. Although we lost all but three contests, our offense outscored our opponents in total points.

Highlights of the season included defeating arch-district rival, Indian Valley South Rebels 2 - 0.

Many individuals were accorded honors. Jerry Johnson, Mark Kinsey and Rod Wilson received Winner Awards at the Fall Sports Banquet. Jeff Swihart also garnered his fourth letter in football.

Darrell Johnson makes a good hit, while Jerry Johnson holds on.

"I feel the educational system is fine, but our students in the 1980's need to take advantage of the educational opportunities available to them." - Mrs. Martha Roudebush

The cheerleaders again this year did a fine job of promoting spirit. Their many long hours of practice made their cheers look easy.

GOLFERS CONTINUE WINNING

This year's golf team ended the season with a very respectable 14-6 record. Despite this fine showing by our linksters, they did not repeat as Inter Valley Conference champs. A big reason behind this failure to capture the I.V.C. crown was the fact that all six losses came in I.V.C. competition.

Highlights of the season included defeating I.V.C. champs Central Catholic, and breaking the school record against the Garaway Pirates.

With three consecutive winning seasons behind them, next year's team will have a strong tradition to build on.

WINNING SEASON

OUTSTANDING SEASON

The varsity volleyball team ended with an outstanding year of 17-4. The girls' hard work paid off as they captured the sectional, district and regional crowns. This won them the right to advance into the state semi-finals where, although they lost, they vowed to return again.

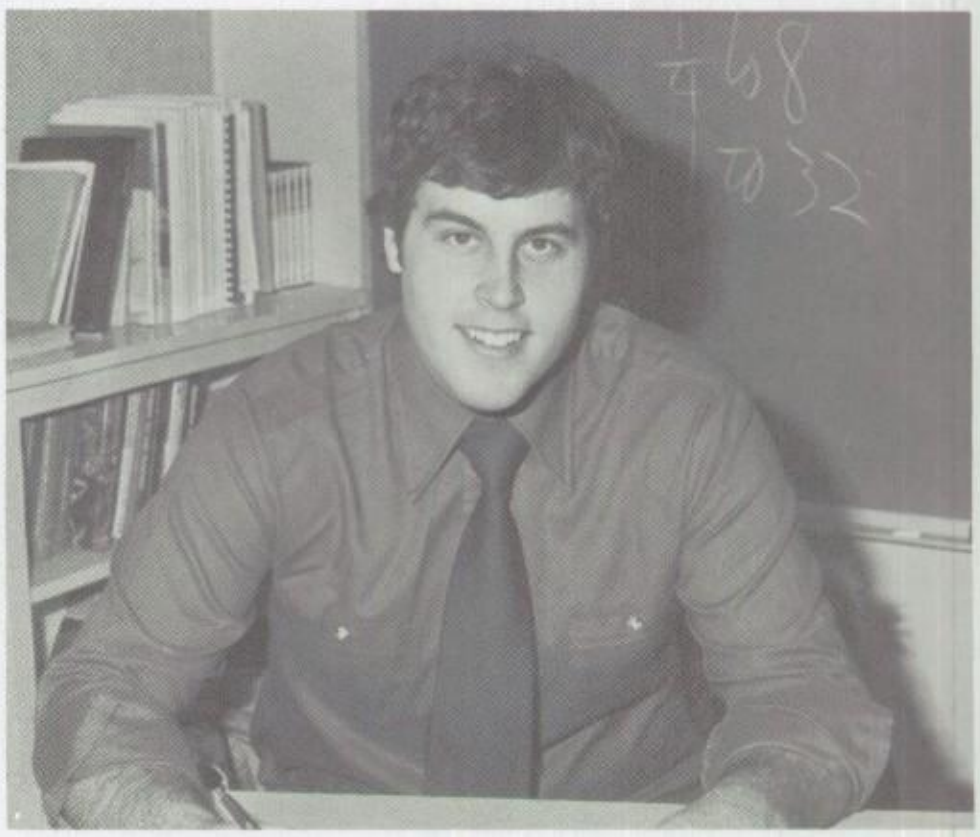
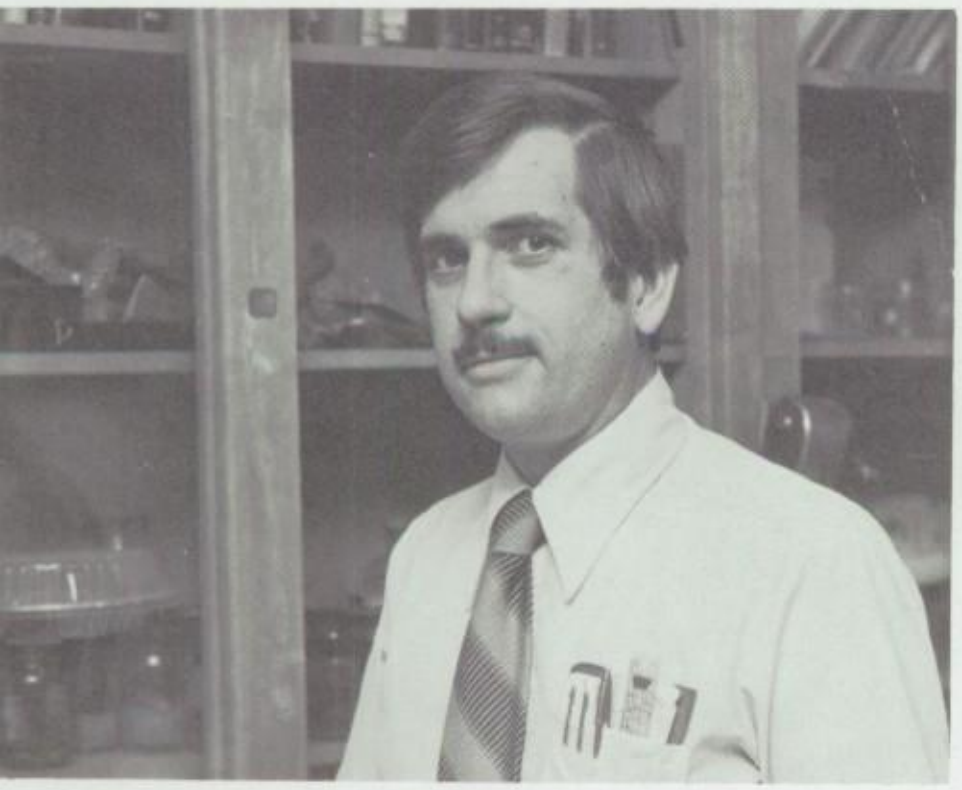
"In the 1980's I would like to see more emphasis placed on fine arts." - Mr. Richard Hunter

"During this decade I believe that fundamentals of the three R's need to be stressed even more." - Mr. John Metzger

"Throughout the 1980's there should be more emphasis on the basics: reading, writing, and arithmetic. There should also be a wider range of subject areas open to the students." - Mr. Greg Jenkins



"During the 1980's I believe that increased emphasis will be placed on the average students. Special classes for students with I.Q.'s of 115 and above should meet half a day together on the guidelines used today in O.W.E., D.E., and E.M.R." - Mr. Keith Pretorius



"J.V.S. should become the thirteenth and fourteenth grade levels for those students not attending college. There should be an increase in the amount of English, social studies, and math required for graudation. Attendance certificates should be issued to those who fail to meet graduation requirements." - Mr. John Pierson

"Take the present system of reading and concentrate on improving it in the 1980's. One method would be to have junior high students read out loud to the lower grades." - Mrs. Betty Andreas

THE INTELLECTS

Strasburg and Indian Valley South were no match for the knowledge of North as both teams were defeated 390-330 and 340- 330 respectively. We were stopped by Central Catholic despite our best efforts. Congratulations to the team for their fine performance.

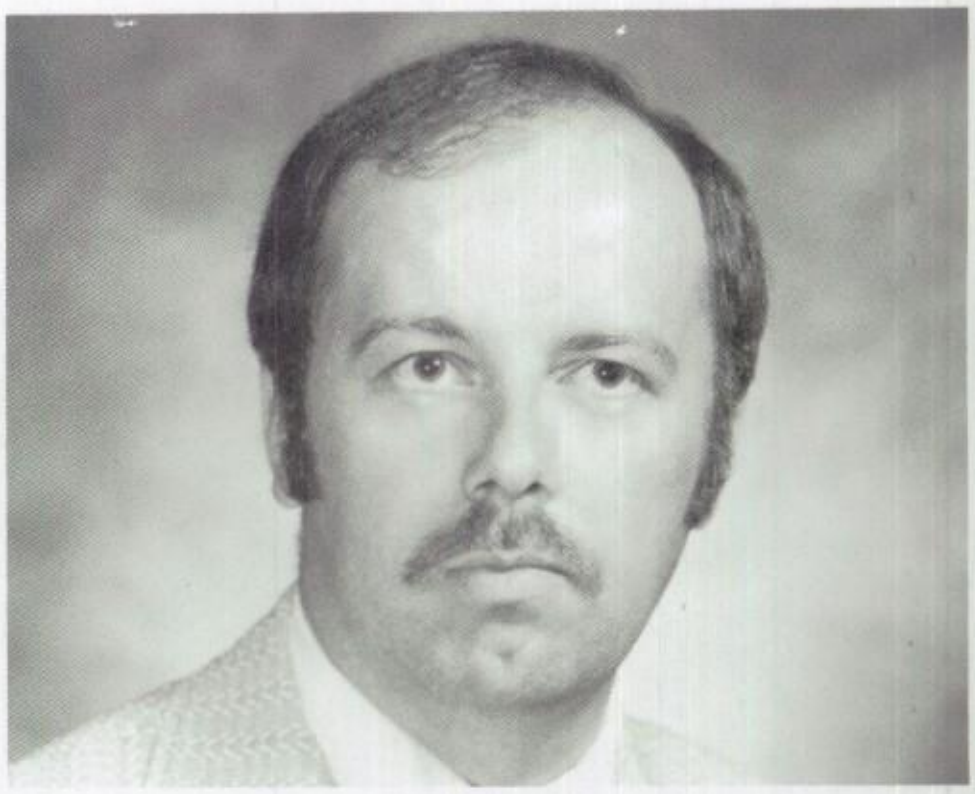
"During the 1980's I think basic changes are needed in school financing at the state level. Within education itself I would like to see more individualization of instruction, and more emphasis placed upon programs for talented students." - Mr. William Wenger, Principal



"With the wider use of telecommunications and the further development of library media centers in this decade, students will become more responsible for their own education. Although under the same administrative structure, social activities will become divorced from educational activities." - Mrs. Betty Lou Honaker, Library-Media Supervisor

"More concentration should be placed on the basics in the 1980's. Perhaps students need to meet a certain point of competency before being allowed to advance." - Mr. Gary Caviness, Guidance Counselor

"The 1980's should prove to be an interesting decade in education. Drastic changes are going to be necessary in the financial structure of our local school districts. Students should begin to accept more of the responsibility for attaining a satisfactory education." - Mr. Richard Bichsel

"The 1980's should see more emphasis on the basics; reading, writing, and arithmetic. Also, I am confident that more gentlemen will be taking an active part in the six areas of Home Economics." - Mrs. Grace Murphy

"During the 1980's students must learn to accept part of the responsibilities of getting a good education. Also, a mastery of the basics of reading, writing, and arithmetic must be accomplished by each student." - Mr. Ron McConnell

The publications staff put hard work and a lot of talent into this year's POLARIS. Besides using their creative abilities, the staff had many routine duties, such as picture taking, cropping, typing, etc., which had to be done.

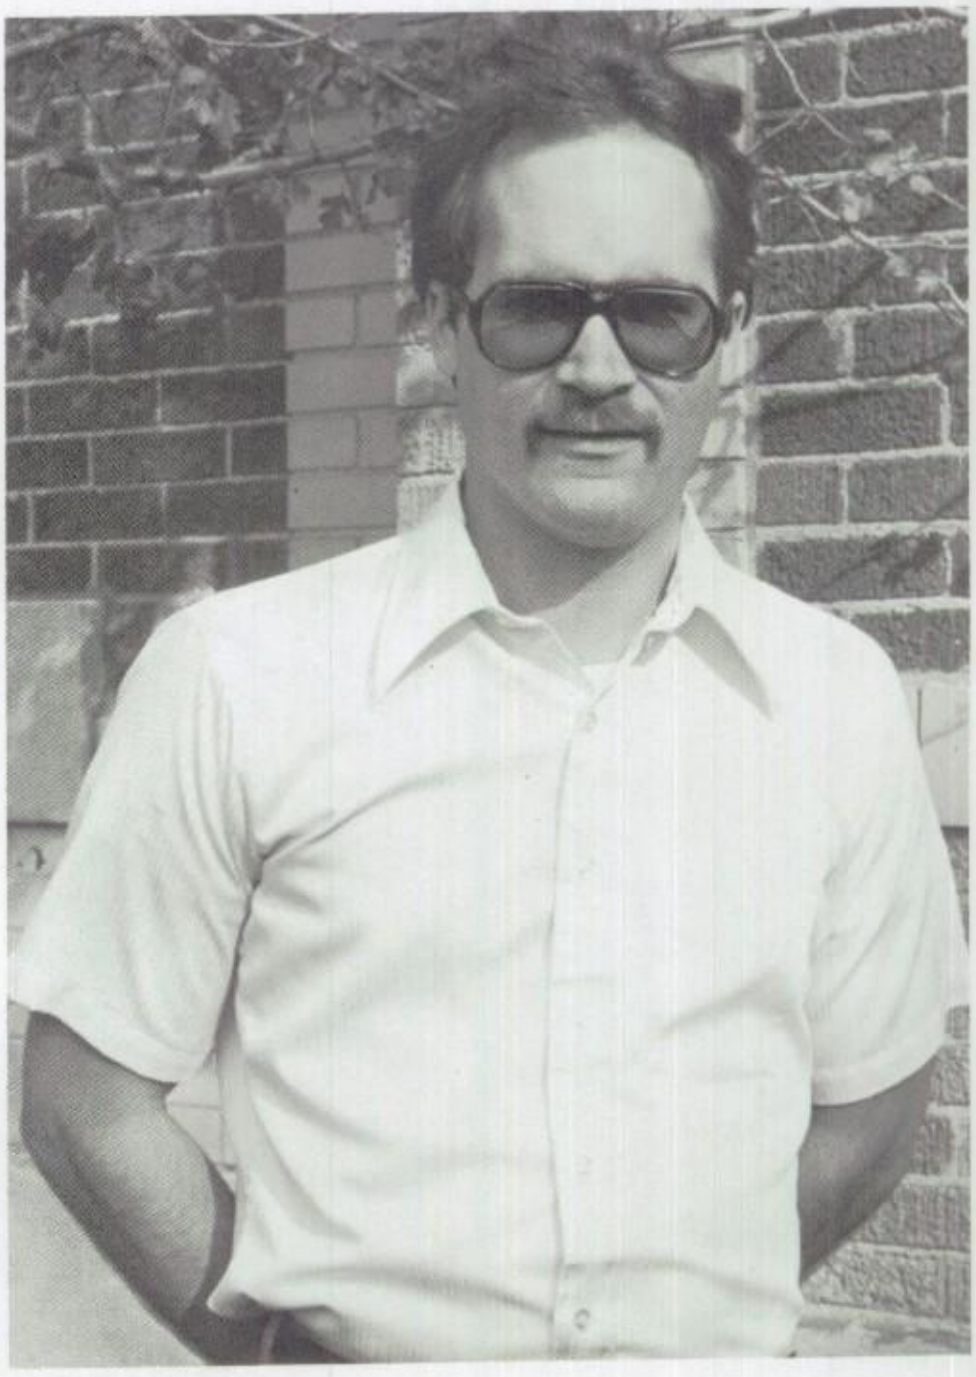
The Distributive Education class, taught by Mr. Wheeler, enables students to receive an education while learning the responsibilities of the working world. Throughout the year, these students have held a bake sale and bowl-a-thon to help raise money for the class, and have taken many field trips. These visits included the WJER radio station and the Kent State Branch. As with the O.W.E. class, the D.E. class has worked many hours and earned much profit.



Mr. Wheeler, Advisor

GOALS REACHED

Working hard throughout the school year, the O.W.E. class reached all of their goals. Besides the many projects the class held, the students still managed to work 12,000 hours and to earn approximately $36,000.

GIRLS FACED STIFF COMPETITION

This year's girl basketball teams faced some stiff competition. Despite their efforts, our varsity girl cagers ended with an 8-13 record. The reserve team finished 7-11.

Next year's squad seems to be quite promising. This year's lone senior, Winnie Shroyer, will be the only member of the team not returning.

Coach Metzger also initiated a girl's basketball program at the junior high level.

PERSEVERENCE BRINGS SUCCESS

This year's varsity squad ended the season with a very fine 12-9 record. Of those nine defeats, several games could have materialized into Big Blue victories. Despite losing to Garaway by one point in the tournament game, our cagers never gave up. With continued perseverence, North's basketball program seems to be in good hands.

GONG SHOW

The Second Annual Gong Show was held January 29 in the Indian Valley North gymnasium. The judges were Mr. Hamilton, Mr. Bichsel, and Mrs. Murphy. Hosting this year's show were North's favorite duo from last year's Gong Show, the Blues Brothers.

Some of this year's acts included Dawna Armstrong's twirling baton act, the singing group AC- DC, a Timex commercial, country-western singer Kenny Rogers, a mat routine by Sandra McNutt, and the rock group Journey.

Taking first place honors was Dawna Armstrong with a score of 29 points out of a possible 30 points.

1980 JUNIOR SENIOR PROM

Juniors hard at work putting up the mural.

Before the prom the junior decorating committee worked hard at planning and decorating to achieve the desired effect. Mr. VanVickle and Mr. Wheeler, advisors, had great anxiety about getting everything finished on time, but the students came through with another great prom.

FRIDAY MAY 2, 1980

Prom favors anyone?

King Tim Carlisle and Queen Lori Briggs

During the prom Tim Carlisle and Lori Briggs were crowned the King and Queen, while the Prince and Princess titles went to Todd Byers and Deana Kinsey. Refreshments consisting of soft drinks, punch, fruit salad, cakes, cookies, etc. were served. The decorations consisted of blue, silver and gold metallic streamers and a scenic mural. The theme was "This One's For You." Prom favors and carnations decorated the tables along with each individual's personal memory book.

Delicious food was enjoyed by all.

"What?! No one dancing?"

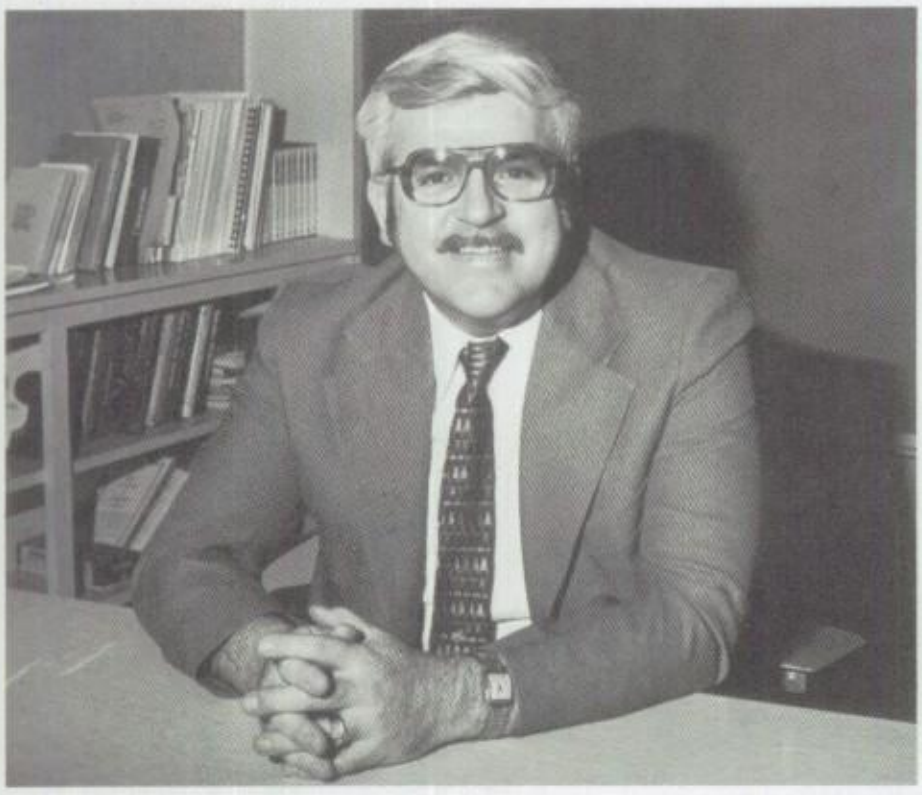
The band for the prom was Krash.

The post prom was held at Boulevard Lanes, and then the Quaker Theater where everyone enjoyed the movie, "Every Which Way But Loose." Perkin's Airport Restaurant provided a wide choice of foods for the breakfast crowd.

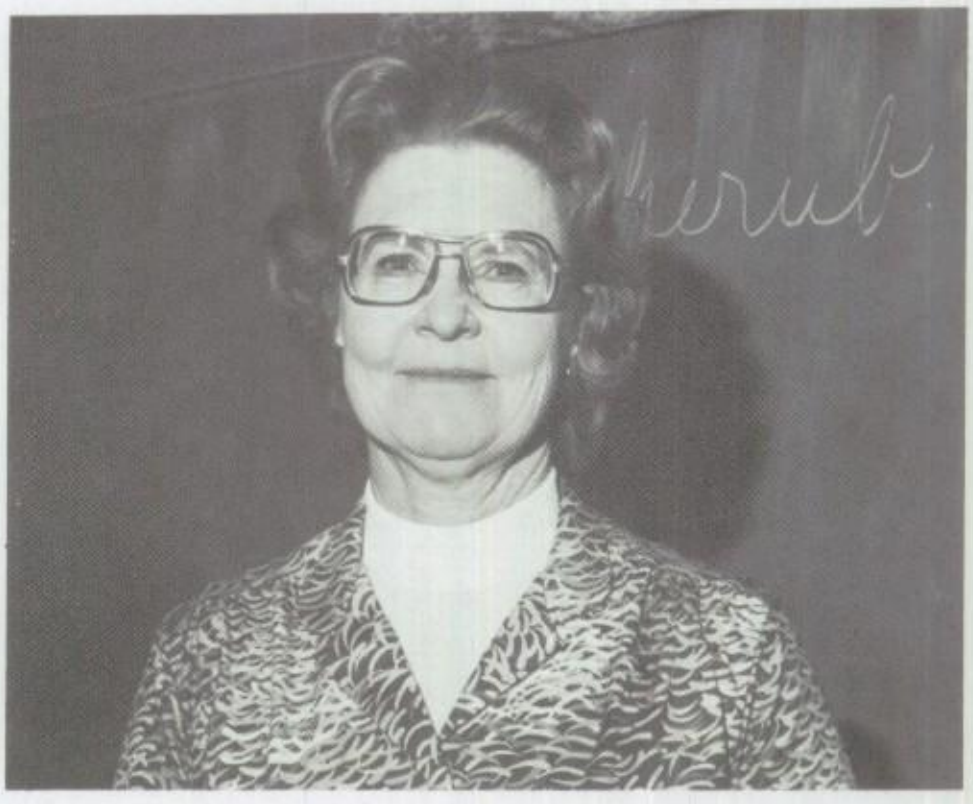
There were also times to dance close with that special someone.

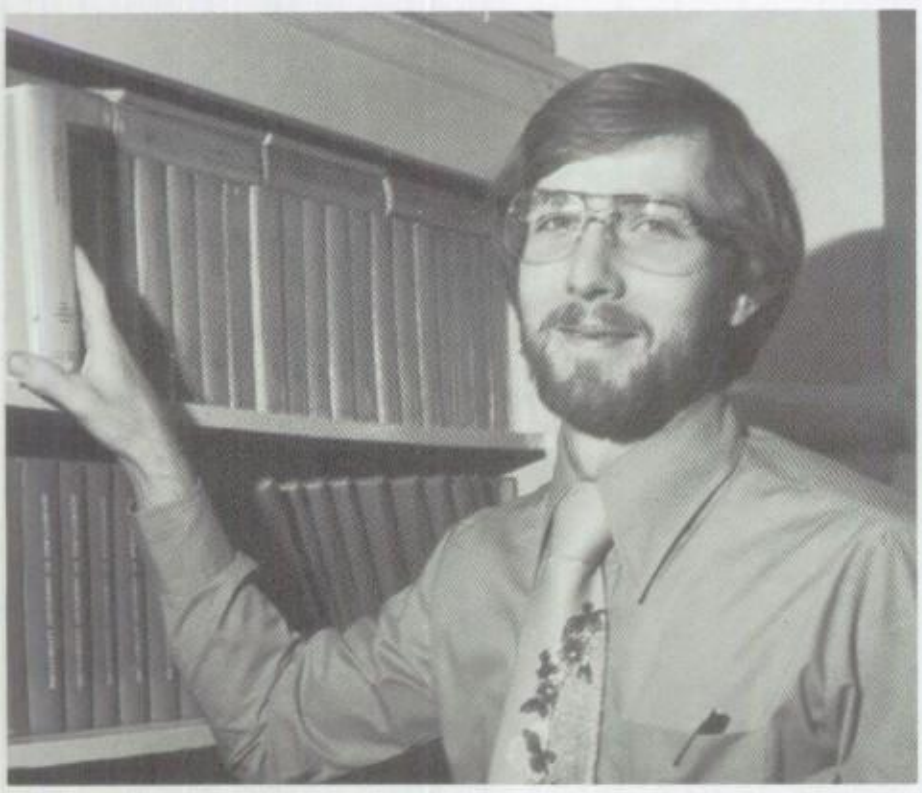
Everyone was getting down to "Krash"

"Education in the 80's should see a shift in emphasis to greater student academic resposibility - achieved in part by allowing teachers to provide input into educational policies rather than having policies imposed by those not in direct daily contact with students." - Mr. M.D. Hamilton

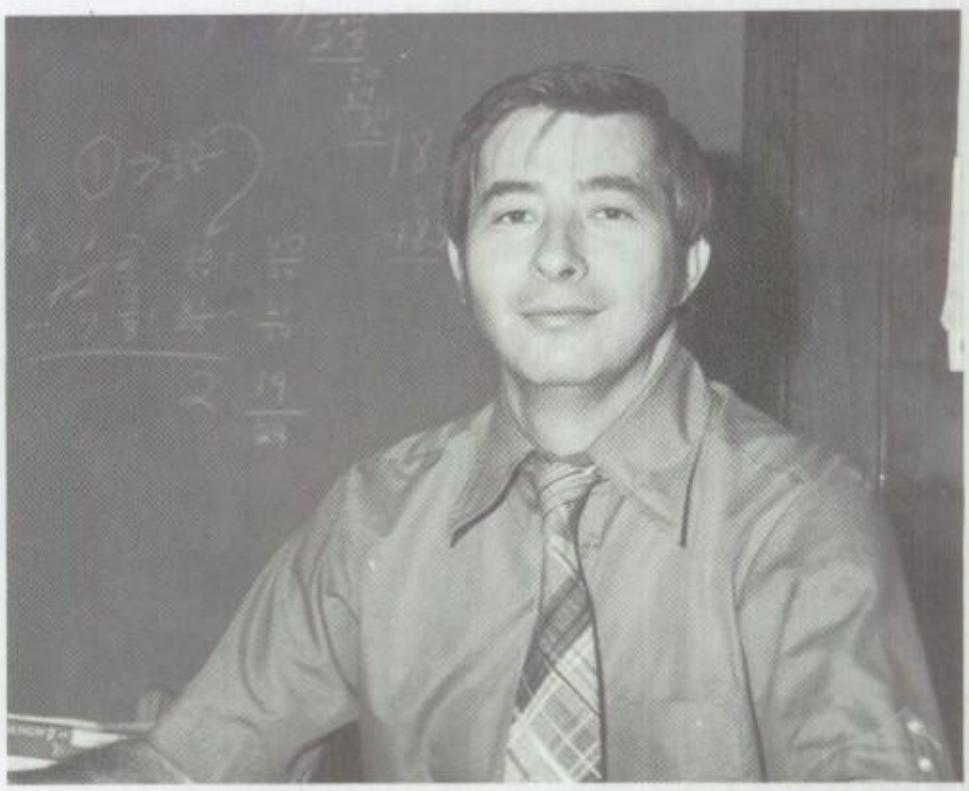


"In the 1980's I would like to see educators emphasize, not just the acquisition of learning, but the wise, thoughtful, humane use of education to re-establish worthy values and choices and to foster self-disipline and a renewed work ethic." - Mrs. Mary Goforth



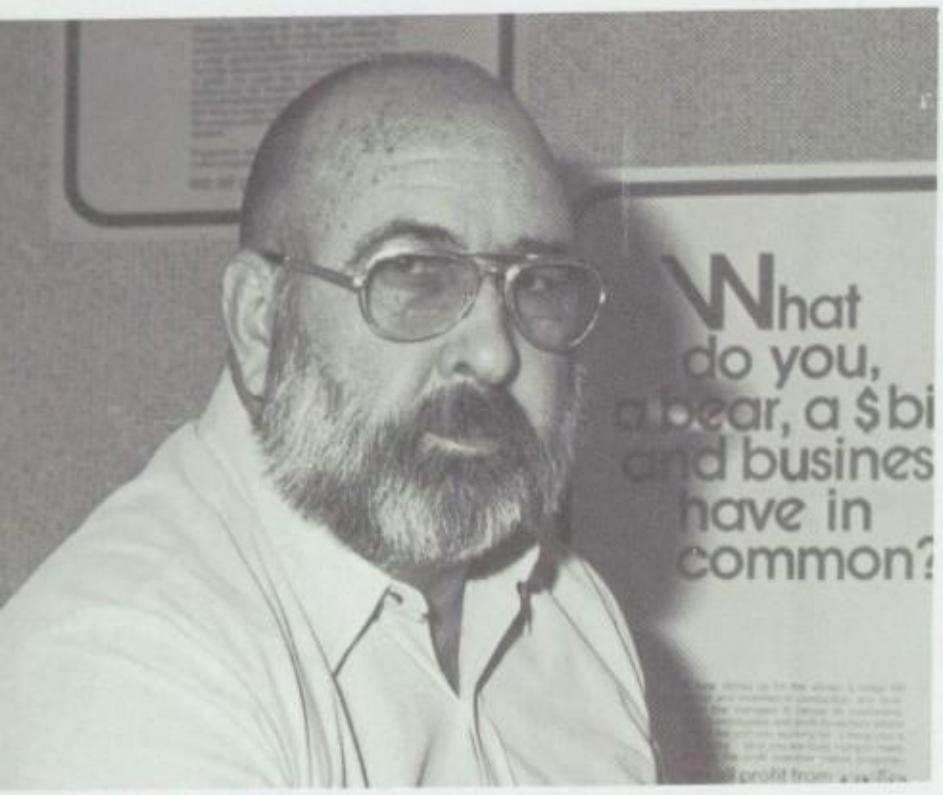


"I hope the 1980's usher in an era of commitment to education. Students, professionals, and communities must re-evaluate society's educational needs." - Mr. Ed VanVickle

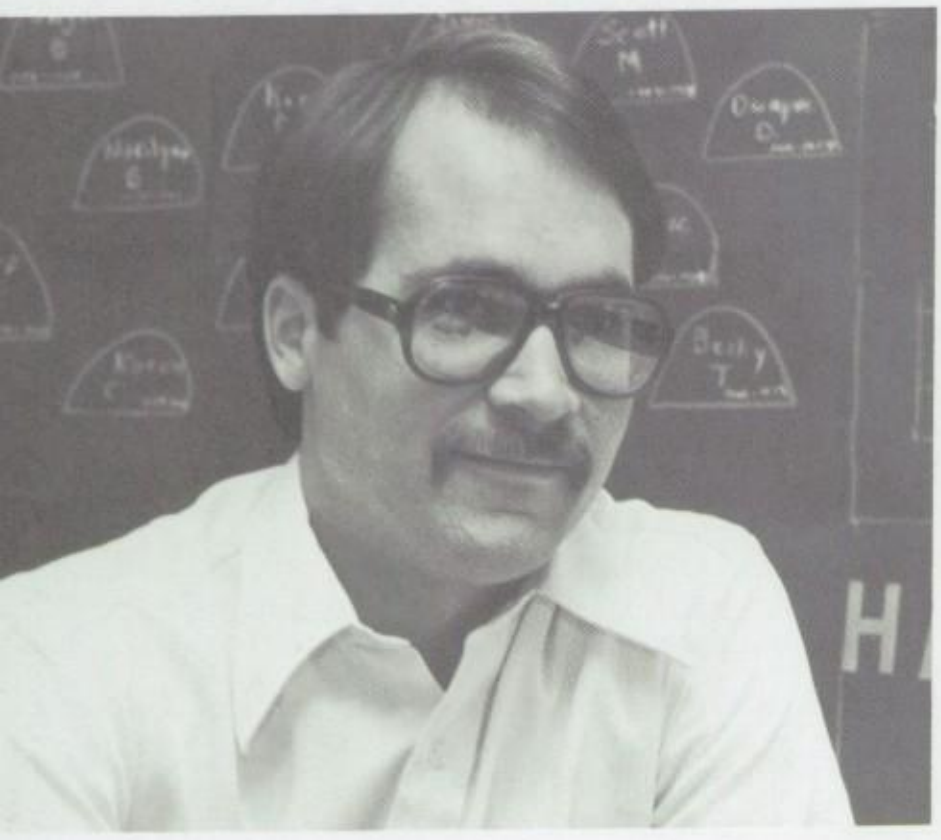


"Education has something for everyone. It will be up to the student to take advantage of the opportunity. Social changes during the 1980's will cause the student to take the opportunity." - Mr. Carl Hykes

"During this decade I feel students should have to pass a minimum competency test before they graduate." - Miss Deborah Stanley



"In the 1980's I am sure you will see the trend continue of more vocational education. Certainly a different method of financing education will also take place." - Mr. Ralph "Pete" Hilliard



"I look for education in the 1980's to direct itself more towards vocational education and trade and industrial programs." - Mr. Robert Wheeler

SCHOOL'S BEST 12-5

This year's baseball team proved to be one of the finest in the school's history. Their record indicates many fine performances. Included in the victories was a Sectional Championship win over Central Catholic. Although the District Championship game resulted in a tough 7-6 loss, our Big Blue pride never faltered.

INDIVIDUALS SHINE

The boy's track team had many fine individual efforts this year. Roland Zontini's pole vaulting left nothing to be desired. Roland's record breaking performance of 13'2" has to be considered a highlight of this year's track season. Rod Wilson also managed to turn in several good timings in the 220-yard dash. One of these timings was enough for a 1st place sectional victory. James Johnson also showed his running abilities by coming in second in the sectional meet.

With a fine bunch of freshmen recruits, our future thin-cladders look very promising.

SUCCESS SHOWN

This year's girl track team proved to be very successful. Victories over such teams as T.C.C., Newcomerstown, and Jewett-Scio provided intense excitement for those who turned out to watch their meets.

Due to the fact that this year's squad had only one senior, it seem inevitable that next year's thincladders will have an exceptional season. Good Luck Girls!

ROD WILSON WINNER'S AWARD TRACK

Rod also advanced to district competition. His performance in the 200 meter dash was one of many thrills Rod supplied to the IVN track fans.

JAMES JOHNSON WINNER'S AWARD TRACK

Another member of the district qualifiers, James excelled at the 400 meter run, turning in several near record times.

BASEBALL TEAM

Congratulations to our baseball team. This year's squad went further down the tournament trail than any other baseball team in the school's history. The team ended with a fantastic 12-5 record.

GREG MATLICK WINNER'S AWARD BASEBALL

Greg's pitching and clutch hitting helped make him a winner. Greg also received second team I.V.C. honors.

TOD WEAVER WINNER'S AWARD BASEBALL

Because of his exceptional hitting and good glove in centerfield, Tod was accorded this honor. Tod was named to the first team I.V.C. squad.

LISA DEUKER WINNER'S AWARD TRACK

Lisa's long jumping abilities are well recognized throughout the I.V.C. Also, her running talents enabled her to place high in many dashes.

CONNIE RUMMELL WINNER'S AWARD TRACK

Connie's talents led her to excell in both field and running events. She was a member of the 440 yard relay team.

GRADUATION MEMORIES

The 1980 Indian Valley North Commencement was held at Trumpet in the Land Amphitheater on Sunday, May 25, 1980, at 2:00 p.m.

Rev. William Feickert's address to the graduates included the need for heroes in our every day lives, and the need for an optimistic approach towards life.

Mr. Wenger, North Principal, read the class roll while Mr. Ron McPeek, President of the Board of Education, presented the diplomas.

The sunny skies added to the joyous mood of the day, and made everyone happy to have a beautiful naturalistic setting for the graduation ceremony.

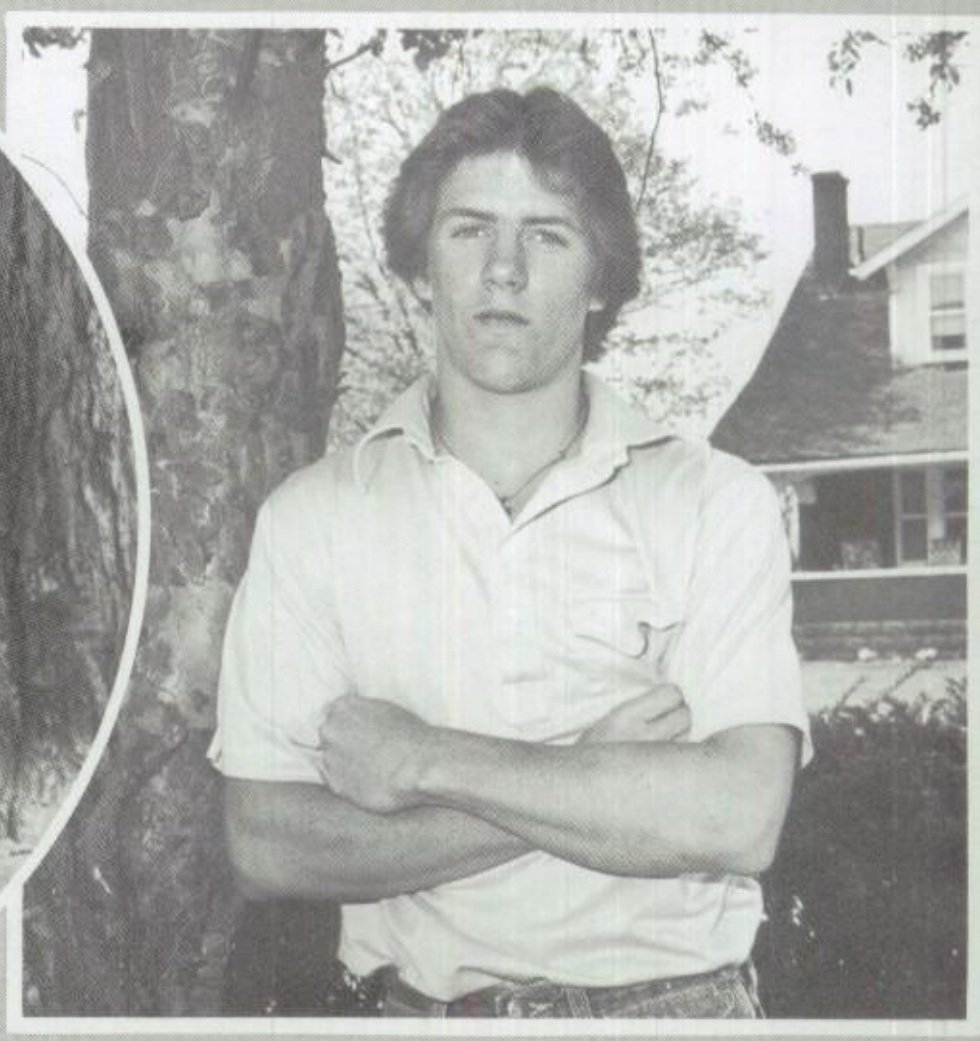
Trying to look like Burt Reynolds, or what?



"I dare you to call Eveready just another battery!"

"Basketball season is over, and we can finally rest!"

"Spud said what?"

"THE BIG FIVE": Pam Wolfe, Lisa Deuker, Missy Graham, Pam Parsons, Pat Wolfe.

"Keep that pitching arm loose, Jeff!"

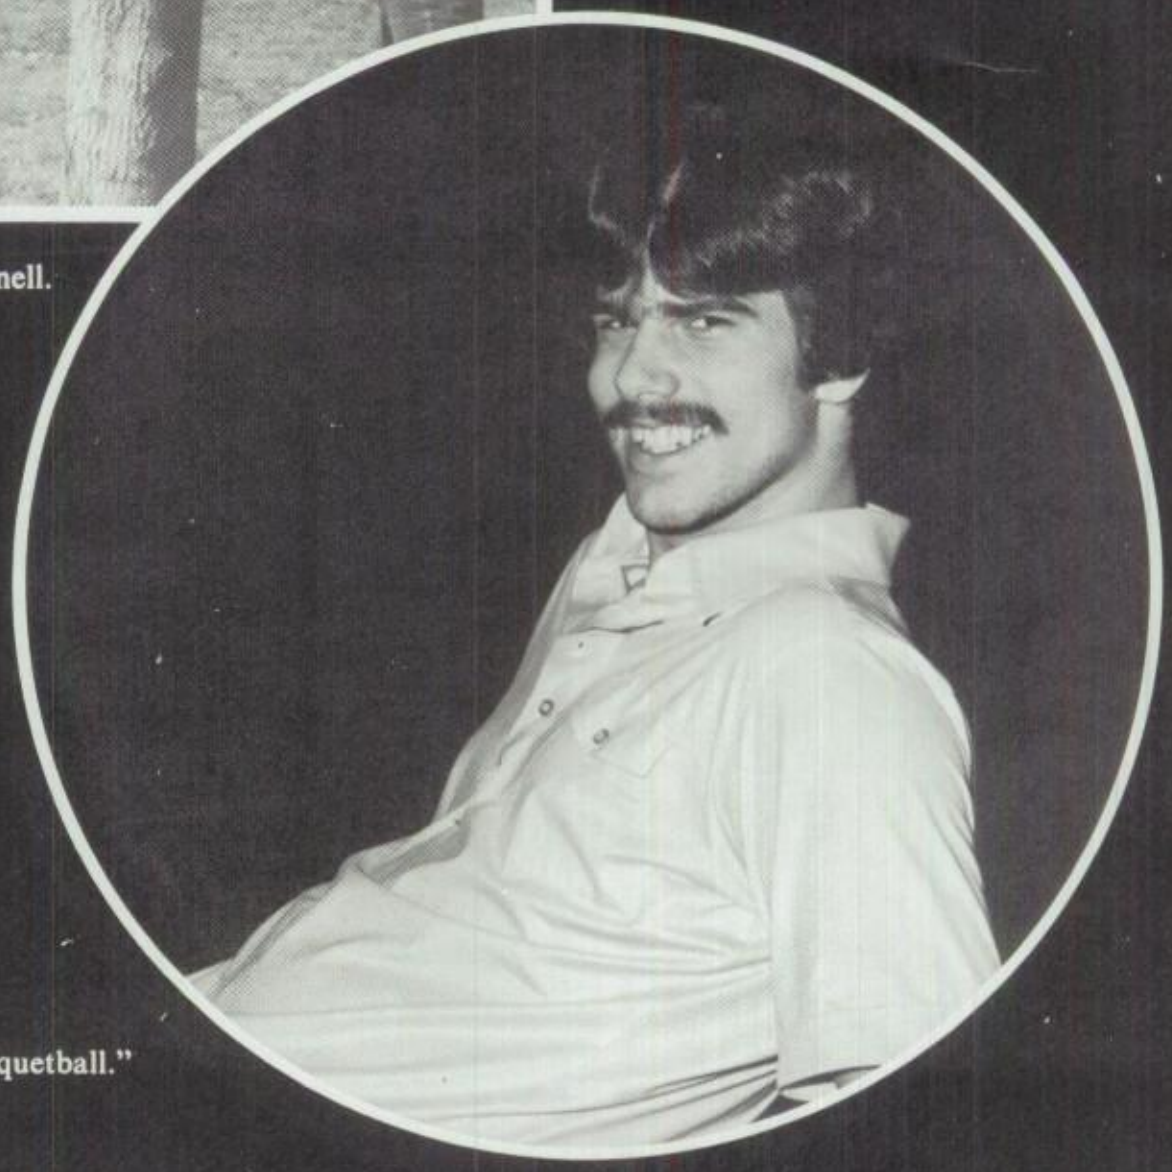
"Put some spin on that ball, Tim."

"I'm glad Dad let me use the car today."

The year is over
And time is gone,
But memories you hold
Will always linger on.
Soon it's time for more classes,
For renewing friendships of those so dear.
Starting again the making of memories
To hold from year to year.
You'll always remember the beginning of these new days;

For yearbook memories will last . . . and last
Throughout this New Decade.

Tina and Raschele trying to hide from Mr. McConnell.



"I always smile when I beat R.M. at racquetball."
